

TEACHER

Compassion

BINGO

Smile at a student	Ask a student how they are feeling	Write an encouraging note to a student	Send an email to a parent about a student who has shown improvement	Say: "I think you're a terrific student and here's why..."
Give your student a "rewind" and let them try again to get something right	Listen to your student without judgment	Empower a student to be their best	Say something kind to a student	Offer extra help to a student
Let a student know how much you believe in them	Say something encouraging to a student		Offer to help a student solve a problem	Tell a student what they are good at
Let a student know what a great problem-solver they are	Look a student in the eyes when you talk to them	Let a student know how much you appreciate them	Show empathy to a student	Apologize for a mistake
Ask a student about their hobbies and interests	Say "please" and "thank you" to a student	Say something helpful to a student	Give a "thank you" card to a student	Send a positive note home with a student